

Dr. Harshil Vora

Dr. Harshil Vora is qualified and experienced Consultant Orthopaedic & Speciality Knee Surgeon. He holds MBBS degree and has completed MS in Orthopaedics as well. He has further had super speciality training from England where he pursued his MCh (Hip & Knee). Currently, he practices at Dr. Voras Orthopaedic Centre, Mumbai.

He has a total of 13 years of clinical orthopaedic experience, including 3 years of international experience. He has worked at renowned centers of excellence worldwide, such as NYU Langone Medical Centre, Birmingham Heartlands Hospital, Wrightington Hospital, and Cambridge University Hospital.

Dr. Vora has various professional achievements which includes Advanced Trauma Life Support(ATLS), receiving gold medal recognition from the Orthopaedic department at Bharati Hospital, Pune. He has further obtained excellent Letters of Recommendation from esteemed professionals in the field. He has actively participated in research, authored scholarly articles, and presented papers and posters at national and international conferences. Dr. Vora's expertise & core Competence lies in Soft tissue knee procedures and reconstruction surgery like total knee Replacements.